Philippians Message #7 9-13-26

Divine Examples of Perfect Humility Philippians 2:5-11

ASK a volunteer to read Philippians 2:5-11

1. Have several people finish this sentence: "Humility is..."
2. Have several people finish this sentence: "Humility is not..."
3. What definition could you give for the term, "servant?"
4. Verse 6 says that Jesus didn't cling to His rights and privileges, but willingly let them go for our sakes. What are some of the powers, rights and privileges that you think Jesus "put on pause" when He became a Human?
5. Which of these would you think would be the most difficult for Him to suppress?
6. Looking back over this early church "hymn" (Verses 6-11), what else stands out to you about Jesus?
7. What are some things we tend to "cling to" that keep us from living for others and serving them?
8. If you used verses 5-8 as a pattern for your thoughts and actions, what effects do you think it would have at home, at work or at church?
9. On a practical level, of what things do you need to empty yourself in order to truly serve someone else?
